

from Franklin Graham

"All of us at Samaritan's Purse are grateful for the prayers, support, and service of people like you, as we answer cries for help from our hurting and broken world."

Helping in Jesus' Name

After sharing the story of the Good Samaritan, Jesus told His listeners: "Go and do likewise." This is the mission of Samaritan's Purse—to follow the example of Christ by helping the hurting and sharing the hope of the Gospel.

'It's All Worth It'

Paul Klokkert, 29, from West Palm Beach, Florida, decided to run his first marathon with Team Samaritan's Purse. He heard about the opportunity while volunteering with our Operation Christmas Child project and made the commitment to run the Publix Georgia Marathon.

"I felt like I needed to challenge myself more and do something for God," he said. "We are so blessed, and if we can give back anything, hopefully that plants a seed in someone's heart and it turns into the gift of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I'm just excited to be a part of it."

As he trained, he told friends and family members how they could support him through Team Samaritan's Purse. By the time Paul finished the race, he had met his fundraising goal.

"It's amazing the strength God gives you through it all," Paul said. "My knee was telling me 'You can't,' but I really felt the prayers of my friends and family helping me to the finish line. When you can do something for the kingdom of God, it's all worth it."
